PLAYER WELFARE

Parents are requested to monitor the physical loads of the players – taking into considering Northern Tigers commitments, school sport commitments, other sport commitments, additional training commitments.

Overtraining, and the consequences of it, is more likely a risk when there is no coordinated approach to managing the training. Overtraining can affect a player's immune system, rate of growth, ability to perform, overuse injuries, and enjoyment.

Northern Tigers coaches must be made aware of all the physical training the players participate in so they can make informed decisions – full disclosure is in the best interests of the players welfare.

Keep the coaching staff fully informed regarding injuries, growth related issues and any relevant medical conditions.

If players are being impacted by issues outside football (school, family) it is helpful for the coaches to be informed so they can support the player. Any information shared with the coaching staff will remain confidential.

If players require support of any nature the Club can assist in connecting with a suitable professional

PLAYER COMMITMENT

Understanding

Representing Northern Tigers FC requires a significant level of commitment to your team and the Club that will require some sacrifice.

Continuous and transparent communication is critical to keep the coaching staff fully informed to support each player, team, and the Club.

Availability

Expectation players to commit to their team and Club by being available for all games.

All players are expected to be available for all training sessions.

Players will be sick, injured, have compulsory school events, exam periods during the season; allowances are made to acknowledge these unavoidable factors.

Player availability and reliability are key attributes required of Northern Tigers FC players to support our Club culture.

Holidays

To support the team and club Holidays should be scheduled outside the football season.

Out of respect for the team and the Club all known player absences (including due to holidays) must be declared as soon as possible (ideally before the season starts).

Players that miss training/game due to holidays may have reduced game time upon return due to a lack of physical preparation and increased risk of injury.

PLAYER FEEDBACK & COACH MEETINGS

Players will receive feedback in several different forms throughout the season:

Verbal feedback at training and on match day

Informal written feedback in PSD via a notification after some training sessions or matches, that is linked to a specific event

Formal Player Development Plan through the Evaluation module in PSD (in March and June)

Players will get feedback and support with their Goal Setting task in PSD

Face to face meeting with the coaching staff when requested by either the coaching staff or parent

Parent Request for Coach Meeting

Parents are welcome to request meetings with any member of the coaching staff to discuss anything related to their child

The meetings can include the player or just the parent/s

Meetings can be requested at any time during the season

Meetings must be scheduled after an initial request by email through PSD, then a suitable date and time can be arranged

Coaches will respectfully decline to discuss a player's development with a parent without suitable notice

Do not approach a coach immediately before or after a training session or match

PLAYER INJURY MANAGEMENT

Players must seek out professional advice when suffering from an injury or growth-related issue. Early diagnosis and treatment are very important for the player's long-term development.

Coaches must be kept fully informed of player injuries, including a medical professionals report on the expected timeframe back to full recovery and the return to play process. Players can choose their own physiotherapist or contact the Club appointed physiotherapist.

When a player misses training/game because of an injury, evidence of a clearance from a medical professional is required before returning to the field (to train or play).

Players who miss training due to injury/sickness may have restricted game time upon return due to a lack of physical preparation and increased risk of further injury.

If a player suffers a potential concussion event, they will be required to seek medical assessment and to follow the prescribed concussion protocol for gradual return to play.
